

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

Warm and cosy

1 Add a decorative touch to your fireplace with beautiful fire bellows by Devlin Jones, made to a traditional design in leather and elm or ash from the Scottish Borders. The teley bellows shown are £165 (07709 799718; www.firebellows.co.uk) ES A

2 These striped baby blankets, £48 each, are made by Nicola McGhee using soft woolen yarns all sourced in the UK (01782 016973; www.minimcgee.com) ES

3 Beautiful Welsh crafts for the home can be found at Blodwen, including this gwynfell – a traditional willow basket, £120 (01239 622828; www.blodwen.com) ES

4 John Lewis has revived classic mid-20th-century patterns from its archives for an exclusive new collection. This oven mitt is £8 (0845 604 9049; www.johnlewis.com) ES

5 As the temperature drops, indulge in a pair of John Arbon's soft, cosy alpaca bed socks, £12. They are woven in Devon from British-made yarn and come in three colours (01598 752490; www.jarbon.com) ES A

6 Celebrating the very best in Welsh design, particularly weaving and knitting, Damsen & Slate sells contemporary textiles, all made in Wales using local wool. These angora cushions are £78 each (01834 862877; www.damsenandslate.co.uk) ES

7 Scottish-based Nutscene produces a wide variety of jute twines essential for gardening and pretty enough for indoors, too. These two-tone spoils (both colours can be used simultaneously) are £8 (01307 468589; www.nutscenedirect.com) ES A

8 Combining contemporary design with chic styling, this Hwam Classic 4 wood-burning stove with oven, £2,149, has an easy-to-control temperature and burn rate (01885 491112; www.euroheat.co.uk) D